

ENNA Congress, 2nd-3rd September 2011

Maud Lundén, RN, MSc

---

PhD student at the Institute of Health and Care Sciences, Sahlgrenska Academy at the University of Gothenburg, Sweden

Curriculum Vitae

Maud Lundén, RN, MSc, PhD student at the Institute of Health and Care Sciences, Sahlgrenska Academy at the University of Gothenburg.

She started her working career in radiology nursing 1983-97 and moved on to work in the field of cardiology with radiological interventions during 1997-2006.

Maud is involved within the radiography nurse programme on bachelor and master level. She is main supervisor for radiography nurses at the department of radiology at Sahlgrenska University hospital.

She is currently involved in the international study Drama - Learning Across Borders (D-lab) and a board member in the Swedish Tau Omega Chapter, Sigma Theta Tau International (STTI), Honor Society of Nursing.

Her research project concerns the patient and radiology nurse experience during radiological interventions.